ACT INCORPORATING THE TOWN OF CRANSTON.

In General Assembly at Newport, second Monday of June, 1754.

An Act for dividing the town of Providence and incorporating the southern part thereof into a township, to be distinguished and known by the name of Cranston.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of this Colony, and by the authority of the same, it is enacted that all the lands in the town of Providence lying to the southward of a line beginning at the head of the cove, called and known by the name of Hawkins's Cove; from thence a straight line to the bent of Pochasset river, a little to the northward of Charles Dyer's, and so to continue up said river until it comes to the road that leads from the town of Providence to Plainfield, and thence westerly up said road until it comes to the Seven Mile line, that is, the dividing line between the town of Providence and Scituate; then southerly with said Seven Mile line until it comes to the southwest corner of the township of Providence, where Providence and Scituate join in Warwick's north line; thence easterly on the dividing line between Providence and Warwick until it meets the salt water or river that leads up to Providence town; then bounding on the salt water or river, as the same extends itself up stream, towards Providence town, until it comes to the aforementioned bound at Hawkins's Cove.

And it is further enacted that all the lands to the northward of the aforementioned line, from Hawkins's Cove to the bent at Charles Dyer's, and so up the river to where Plainfield road crosses said river, and all the lands to the northward of said Plainfield road until it meet the aforesaid Seven Mile line, and shall be and remain to the town of Providence, and all the lands to the northward of the last-mentioned lines to be distinguished and known by the name of Cranston; and that the inhabitants of said Cranston from time to time have and enjoy the like benefits, liberties, privileges and immunities with other towns in this Colony, according to charter.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that the Justices of the Peace living within the aforesaid town of Cranston shall remain and continue in their aforesaid offices until the next general election; and that the first of the said Justices of the Peace grant forth his warrant to call the inhabitants of said Cranston together on Tuesday, the 25th day of this instant, June, at some convenient place in said town of Cranston, to elect and appoint such town officers as they shall have occasion for and the law directs, and to appoint the times and places of their town meeting, and to choose and elect two Deputies to represent them at the October session, and so on, as by the charter is directed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that said town of Cranston shall send two grand and two petit jurors to every Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Assize and General Jail Delivery, and two grand and two petit jurors to every Inferior Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace, held within the county of Providence.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforesaid that from henceforward the town of Providence shall keep in repair the one-half of the aforementioned highway, or road, called Plainfield road, from the place where the aforesaid Pochasset crosses to the same as aforementioned dividing line of Scituate and

Providence; and that the town of Cranston keep in repair the other half; and that the town of Providence begin at the aforementioned river, where it crosses said road, and so measure one-half of the distance from said river up said road, which half Providence shall keep and maintain in repair; and the western half the town of Cranston shall keep and maintain in repair for the future.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that the debts which are now due from the town of Providence (such as town debts) shall be first paid out of the interest money arising from the interest of the loan money taken by the inhabitants of the town of Providence out of the several banks, and that after the aforesaid town debts are paid that then the interest of the aforesaid loan money shall go to the respective town where the lands are mortgaged; but in case there be not interest money enough to discharge the new debts of the town of Providence, that then the inhabitants of the town of Cranston shall raise and pay their equal lot by levying a rate on the inhabitants of said town of Cranston; and that the debts which are now due from the town of Providence shall be settled and paid in proportion as the last town rate was levied on the inhabitants.

And be it further enacted that the poor persons who are now a town charge to the town of Providence shall be equally divided between the towns of Providence and Cranston, according to the levy of the aforesaid rate.

And that Daniel Jenckes, Jonathan Randall and Philip Greene, Esq., or the major part of them, be a committee to draw the aforesaid line from Hawkins's Cove to the bent of Pochasset river, aforesaid, and also to settle and adjust the debts now due from the town of Providence, and order what part the town of Cranston shall pay of the same and what part of the poor persons of the towns of Providence and Cranston shall take as their part, and the report of said committee, or any two of them, to be final when made to this General Assembly.

This Assembly do vote and resolve, and it is voted and resolved, that William Burton, Esq., shall be deemed and taken to be and act as the first Justice in Cranston.
